

ST BRIDGET of Ireland

CATHOLIC CHURCH

1024 W. Main St. Berryville, VA 22611

October 21, 2018

St. Bridget (or Brigid) of Kildare is one of the three major patron saints of Ireland along with Saint Patrick and Saint Columba. Saint Bridget's faith and labors for the Lord are remembered among the Irish people through prayers, sacred places, blessings and customs. St. Bridget was an extraordinary woman of faith: strong in her mission, loyal to the Lord, faithful to the Church, generous to the poor and hospitable to missionaries. St. Bridget laid strong foundations for the Church in Ireland. Her feast day is February 1st, the first day of the Celtic Spring.

PASTOR'S WORDS

Just a reminder that November 2 (All Souls Day) is also First Friday. In October, we held our first holy hour following the Noon Mass. In November, I would like to extend the hours of adoration into the evening, until 8 p.m. The final hour, 7 to 8 p.m., will be holy hour in which we will offer prayers for the victims of the sex abuse crisis. The hour will include evening prayer and the Divine Mercy Chaplet, as well as Benediction.

Starting this weekend, a sign-up list will be placed in the narthex of the church. You can sign up for hour or half-hour time slots. Ideally, we want to have at least two people signed up for each hour, but we can get by with one. It's important that we don't have any hours unattended, so please consider signing up to spend some time with Our Lord.

A man spending hours in the presence of the tabernacle once told St. John Vianney that he was looking at Jesus, and Jesus was looking at him. In the end, that's what Eucharistic Adoration is all about. We look at Jesus, and he looks at us.

Imagine Jesus looking down from the cross. He sees those who are mocking and ridiculing him, though he is dying for them. Then he sees his mother and beloved disciple. Which one, do we suppose, brought him consolation in the midst of his Passion? Perhaps, as we adore Jesus in the Eucharist, we can bring him some consolation in the midst of the turmoil wracking his Mystical Body, the Church. Perhaps in loving him, we can make some small reparation for the sins of shepherds who have led souls astray. We can ask the Lord of Life to bring healing and peace to souls so grievously wounded by those sins.

Imagine the Risen Jesus, looking at the Apostles on Easter Sunday. Aware that they abandoned him in the hour of his Passion, they were probably full of fear. What will the Master say? Jesus says, "Peace be with you." In Adoration we look at Jesus and he looks at us. Maybe we, too, come to him with anxieties, an all-too-keen sense of awareness regarding our sinfulness and weakness. Perhaps he will remind us of the time he forgave a woman caught in the act of adultery. Perhaps he will remind us that he is mercy itself, and that he comes, not to bring judgment, but mercy.

Given that it will be All Souls Day, it might be good for us to remember our loved ones. As we gaze upon Christ and he looks upon us, we might remember that he is the Resurrection and the Life. Whoever believes in him, even if he dies, will have eternal life. What hope he gives us, a hope that no one else in the world can give us.

I know that our lives are full and busy, but I encourage you to spend some time in the presence of Our Lord. Like I said, we need people to sign up for hour or half-hour slots, but if you are not able to do that, at least consider spending a few minutes with Jesus. What a difference even that can make in our lives.

*In Our Lord,
Father Paul Grankauskas*
