

ST BRIDGET of Ireland

CATHOLIC CHURCH

1024 W. Main St. Berryville, VA 22611

May 31, 2020

St. Bridget (or Brigid) of Kildare is one of the three major patron saints of Ireland along with Saint Patrick and Saint Columba. Saint Bridget's faith and labors for the Lord are remembered among the Irish people through prayers, sacred places, blessings and customs. St. Bridget was an extraordinary woman of faith: strong in her mission, loyal to the Lord, faithful to the Church, generous to the poor and hospitable to missionaries. St. Bridget laid strong foundations for the Church in Ireland. Her feast day is February 1st, the first day of the Celtic Spring.

Notes from the Parish Staff

Notes from the Parish Staff

Here is the resumed weekly Mass schedule for this week: Monday, Tuesday and Friday Mass is at Noon. No Masses on Wednesday and Thursday due to the work being done in the church. First Friday, June 5, following Mass, we will have a Holy Hour with Eucharistic Adoration, recitation of a Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet and confessions.

This has been a very busy time for the staff in preparing for the resumption of the new mass and in getting things completed while you were all away.

Please welcome a new full time Secretary to Fr. Paul, Sharon Gormas. Sharon is not a newcomer to the office, as she was the administrative instructor who set up our new parish office three years ago and a long time Secretary/Office Manager at Sacred Heart of Jesus in Winchester. She is family already and will be a blessing to our parish. The current Secretary, Ruth Hayes, will be retiring by her 71st birthday in July. She will continue to be active in our parish community.

*Stay Safe,
Parish Staff*

FYI

Church Construction: There will be no Masses on Tuesday and Wednesday this week, June 2nd and 3rd, due to work being done in the church.

Confessions are Tuesday 6:30 - 8 PM and Saturday 4 - 5 PM in the sacristy temporarily.

Bulletin: We are publishing the bulletin in the office and are placing it on our website weekly and a few copies in the narthex if you cannot get it on our website. www.StBridgetberryville.org

Living Nazareth High School Now Enrolling: Living Nazareth High School, located here at St. Bridget of Ireland, is currently accepting student applications for the 2020-2021 academic year. We are a Catholic co-educational high school employing a contemplative model to offer a rigorous classical education entirely faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church. Regular spiritual direction, daily Mass, an academic year structured around the Liturgical Calendar, and a family-centered weekly schedule are simply a few of the distinguishing features of our model. We invite families to visit our website, www.LivingNazareth.org, to learn more. To receive an application or for more information please email LivingNazareth@gmail.com.

"The contemplative model employed by Living Nazareth High School places necessary emphasis on the interior life of the young person as a keystone of the formation process. Without such life, nurtured and sustained by dedicated times of prayer, spiritual direction, and the Sacraments, any other efforts on behalf of human life are impossible."

- Fr. Shenan Boquet,
President of Human Life International

Thank You, And Keep It Coming Please! Collections are still going well and being handled in the parish office and will continue for a while longer. If you want to keep up your weekly donations and mail them to us, we are great with that. If you want to make a monthly payment, just send us one regular envelope with one payment. You may also include the second collection offerings in the appropriate envelope, as we always count and deposit for the purpose. If you want to give cash in your envelopes, please Do Not Mail, just drop them in the poor box at the back of the church. We are very blessed in our church family with the most generous of parishioners. Please let us help you during this uncertain time. Your Mass collections can be placed in a basket for the resumed masses and will be collected and processed by the office at this time.

May 31, 2020 Divine Mercy Said: "My daughter, do you think you have written enough about My mercy? What you have written is but a drop compared to the ocean. I am Love and Mercy Itself. There is no misery that could be a match for My mercy, neither will misery exhaust it, because as it is being granted--it increases. The soul that trusts in My mercy is most fortunate, because I Myself take care of it." (St. Faustina Diary, 1273)

Saint of the Week

St. William of Gellone:

William was born in 755 to Theoderic and Aldanathe in Toulouse, France. His father was known as Count Thierry of Auton and Toulouse, his mother was Charlemagne's aunt. William was a member of the famed court of Charlemagne. He was named duke of Aquitaine and chosen by Charlemagne to lead a campaign against the Saracens (invaders from Spain) in southern France. He defeated the Islamic Saracens in this campaign at Orange. Throughout his military career, he displayed exemplary chivalry and was honored as the ideal knight. However, he gave up the sword and became dedicated to the promotion of the faith. In 804, William founded a Benedictine monastery at Gellone, near Aniane. Two years later, with Charlemagne's permission, he entered the community as a monk. As a humble monk, William, mounted on a donkey and clothed only in a simple tunic, would bring food to the workers in the fields of the Monastery of Gellone. William remained at the monastery until his death in 812. The abbey was later renamed SaintGuilhem-du-Desert in his honor. His Feast Day is May 28th.

Spiritual Thought

There is a light in this world, a healing spirit more powerful than any darkness we may encounter.

We sometimes lose sight of this force when there is suffering, too much pain. Then suddenly, the spirit will emerge through the lives of ordinary people who hear a call and answer in extraordinary ways.
